

New XceL Checkerboard Puzzle No. 2

Doyle Puzzle Co., Buffalo, NY, circa 1920?
(cardboard box 5.1" x 5.1" x 7/8", and 13 distinct cardboard pieces with 3/4" squares;
also made in a 14 piece version, the XceL Checkerboard Puzzle No. 1; shown on page 122 of the Haubrich book, which lists this puzzle as having 7 solutions, 5 of which a composed of two 4 by 8 solutions, one of these 5 and one other are shown below, where the black squares correspond to green and the white to black)

