Thirty One

Larger versions of the Fifteen puzzle can be solved the same way; a common example is double the size with 31 tiles (see also the 20 and 27 puzzles).

a.k.a. Jumble

(plastic, 31 tiles, 5 by 2.9 by 1/4 inch thick)

Wm. F. Drueke & Sons, Grand Rapids, Mich., circa 1960’s.
(plastic, 31 tiles, 5.1 by 2.9 by 1/4 inch thick)

Copyright J. A. Storer
Thirty One, Continued

"Roalex's Zig-Zaw Puzzle Map of The World", circa 1960s.
(plastic, 31 tiles, 3 by 5 by 5/16 inches;
see the Fifteen puzzle further reading for a photo of the packaging)

Map of the U.S., circa 2000?
(plastic, 31 tiles, 3 by 5 by 3/16 inches)

Copyright J. A. Storer