This issue is no longer in print.

Contents from this issue:

Articles

BUILDING A SLEIGH BED
Flowing tambours and intricate detailing enhance a classic design
by William Turner

A VACUUM FENCE FOR A TABLESAW

BELT SANDER TUNE-UP
Flattening the base and aligning the wheels
by George E. Cooper

LAYING OUT A WORKSHOP
Planning for workflow and flexibility
by Scott Landis

WORKING IN A SMALL SPACE

AN EASY-TO-BUILD WORKBENCH
Bolted butt joints for rigid construction
by Richard Starr

MILK PAINT
Making an udderly timeless topcoat
by A. Richard Fitch

SHARPENING A SCRAPER
A flat file and a few seconds are all you need
by E. S. Martin

TRADITIONAL SCRAPER SHARPENING REVISITED
by Pat Buford

MAKING A WOODEN CUBE PUZZLE
Simple methods produce precisely interlocking pieces
by Stewart T. Coffin

68

A SLIDING TILE PUZZLE
by Robert Stirling

69

REFINING TABLE DESIGN WITH DETAILS
Twin aprons, sculpted joints and chamfers
by Ross Day

72

TURNING A SCOOP
Twelve steps from lathe to flour bin
by Richard Raffan

76

BUILDING AN OCTAGONAL PEDESTAL
Easy assembly with core-and rib-construction
by John Hines

80

A DEHUMIDIFICATION KILN
A compact system for drying your own wood
by William Bolf

83

HOW A KILN DRIES WOOD

85

A REVIEW OF FRACTIONAL CALCULATORS
Adding up the feet and inches
by Pat Warner

88

ROUTING HARDWARE MORTISES
Working with templates and guide brushings
by Jeff Greef

91

MAKING A MORTISING FIXTURE

93

JAMES KRENOV AND FRIENDS
Show spotlights work of students and teacher
by Jim Boesel

94

DECADE IN THE REDWOODS
by Doug Noyes

97

Departments

Page

LETTERS
ProScale update; bending boxes; jigsaw puzzle blades

4

METHODS OF WORK
Hand-screw storage; jointing long boards; routing dadoes

14

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
Truing a grinding wheel; toxic wood dust; sealers and fillers

26

EVENTS
A look at upcoming programs of interest to woodworkers

116

BOOKS

122
Refinishing Old Furniture; Shaker Furniture and Woodenware

NOTES AND COMMENT
Design in Wood show; luthiers’ symposium; product reviews

This issue is no longer in print.