

Richter - London Hamleys Toy Store

This is a Miniature Tormentor-
Puzzle. The original size is supplied in elegant box measuring about $3\frac{1}{2} \times 3$ inches with a book with nearly 200 Problems, each problem requiring all stones. There are 17 different kinds of the famous RICHTER'S Stone Puzzles selling at 6d. each. Ask for Catalogue. ∴ To be had from

HAMLEYS
London W.

House, built with No. 11.
Write for Catalogue. Post free! 2d.

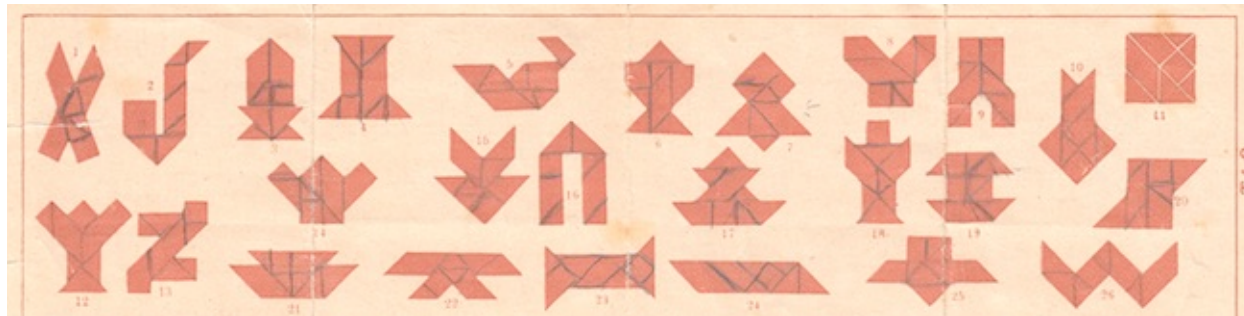

ANCHOR STONE BUILDING BLOCKS.
Stone Construction only.

Boxes Nos.	2	4	6	8	10	12	16	20	&c.
Prices each	1/3	2/6	5/-	11/-	17/-	25/-	43/-	64/-	&c.

Stone and Metal Construction.

Boxes Nos.	3	5	7	9	11	15	19
Prices each	3/-	6/-	12/-	19/-	27/-	45/-	65/-

A TOY FOR CHILDREN!
A pastime for adults!
An amusing Hobby for Architects!

F. Ad. Richter & Co., Germany, early 1900's.

- (cardboard box 2.125" x 2.125" x 3/8", 8 stone pieces, and problem sheet;
- puzzle tray slides into the right side of the box with a small tab to pull it out;
- top and bottom of box edge says "Richter's Puzzles.";
- same pieces in a smaller size as Richter No. 13 Tormentor;
- same size and pieces as Richter Piccolo T1, and like that puzzle
- problem sheet has 26 shapes, where problem 11 shows how to pack into the box)

The first of three miniature Richter puzzles referred to as Picco or Piccolo (Nr. T2 is the same as Richter 12 Pythagoras and Nr. T3 is the same as Richter 8 Anchor Puzzle with the parallelogram piece divided into two triangles); see the Anchor Puzzle Book.

Further Reading

Modern page of the London Hamleys toy store, from: <http://www.hamleys.com/explore-stores.irs>